WHAT'S NEW AT HIPPOCRATES WELLNESS THIS MONTH?

ASK THE EXPERTS

Q. What is the key to losing post-menopausal weight gain? - Claire Pavlinec from France

A. Science has finally conducted the necessary research to unveil the importance and effect of metabolism. We know that our primal ancestors versus our agrarian forbearers and current people function in uniquely different ways. Today, with the virtual absence of breastfeeding, "Forever Chemicals" saturating our bodies, and stress loads worse than when dinosaurs would chase us, our bodies receive cross messages from our hormones and stack on the pounds, originally meant for energy to help us run for our lives. We must all adopt a clean, constructive Hippocrates Lifestyle, and problems will release.

- Anna Maria Clement, PH.D., L.N.

Q. What are the best foods to eat to gain muscle at the age of 65 and up? - David White from Virginia

A. After the ripe young age of 50, even the healthiest people increase their inability to absorb proteins. This is why the digestible forms that plants provide are the only viable option. When people maintain the Hippocrates Diet, we do not see this as a problem since this is the highest absorbable protein diet on earth. As a bodybuilder, I ensure in my 70s that I consume more of these protein foods than I would have in my 60s, 50s, and 40s. Sprouts, fresh saltwater algae, pollens, and some clean protein plant powders, like Lifegive, are ways to grow muscle. It has been proven that at 100, you develop muscle the same as at 18 with less hormone activity. It is just harder to maintain it. This is more evidence of the essential importance of weightlifting forever.

THINK PIECE STRENGTH IN MOTION

BY ANNA MARIA AND BRIAN CLEMENT PH.D., L.N.

As the year winds down, fitness, weight loss, and detoxification are front and center at Hippocrates Wellness. Rather than waiting for a “New Year” reset, we believe the best time to transform your health is now. Our progressive approach integrates plant-based nutrition, mindful movement, and emotional wellbeing, offering you a path to lasting vitality.

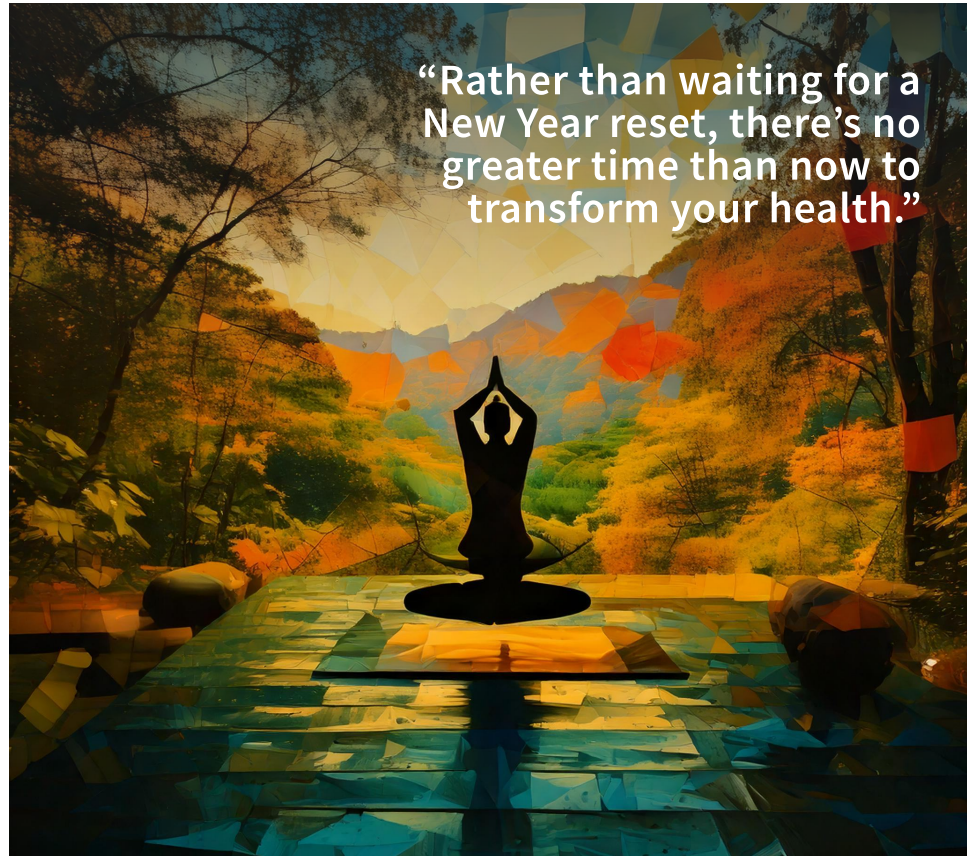

Fitness and Weight Loss: A Balanced Approach

We view fitness as more than just exercise—it’s a form of healing that strengthens both body and mind. Engaging in physical activity improves circulation, promotes detoxification, and boosts emotional resilience. Whether through yoga, stretching, or more intense routines, movement plays a key role in maintaining mental clarity and reducing stress.

At Hippocrates, our signature 21-day Life Transformation Program combined with our Fitness Protocol is personalized to meet your unique needs. Tailored exercise routines help build strength, enhance flexibility, and boost metabolism. But beyond the physical benefits, our progressive approach incorporates mindfulness, turning exercise into a tool for emotional balance and overall wellness.

Nutrition and Detoxification: Nourishing from Within

Detoxification isn’t a one-time process; it’s something we encourage daily through plant-based nutrition. An organic, raw, enzyme-rich diet supports your body’s natural detox pathways while providing essential nutrients needed for energy and recovery. Fresh green elixirs, leafy greens, and antioxidant-rich foods help cleanse the body, support digestion, and promote sustainable weight loss. Rather than focusing on restriction, we emphasize nourishment. By shifting your mindset to eating foods that fuel and energize, weight loss becomes a byproduct of a balanced, nutrient-dense lifestyle. This sustainable approach not only enhances fitness efforts but creates long-term habits that support overall wellness.

“Rather than waiting for a New Year reset, there’s no greater time than now to transform your health.”

Emotional Wellbeing: The Key to Lasting Success

We recognize that weight loss and fitness are not just physical journeys, they are deeply connected to emotional and mental health. Through mindful practices like Mandala Breathwork and emotional release therapies, we reduce stress and negative patterns that often hinder progress. These practices encourage a healthy relationship with food, exercise, and oneself, making the journey more impactful for future success.

A Holistic Lifestyle: The Sustainable Path

The integration of fitness, detoxification, and emotional healing forms the foundation of the Hippocrates progressive approach. It’s not about quick fixes or temporary solutions. Our methodology is a long-term lifestyle that promotes health, vitality, and wellbeing. As we enter the final stretch of the year, we invite you to embrace this life-changing journey and experience the transformation of mind, body, and spirit.

Why wait for January? Your path to lasting wellness starts today.

SWEAT IT OUT

The Power of Infrared Saunas

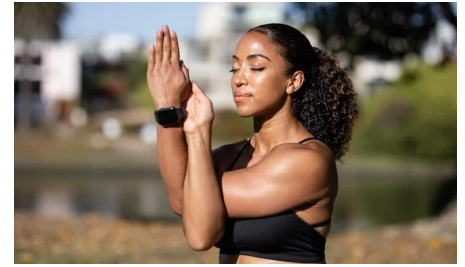

Infrared saunas are an innovative tool for detoxification and recovery, helping to flush toxins from the body while boosting circulation and metabolism. Unlike traditional saunas, infrared heat penetrates deep into tissues, supporting muscle recovery, reducing inflammation, and promoting relaxation. At Hippocrates, our state-of-the-art infrared saunas are designed to help you detox while enhancing your overall wellbeing.

GREEN ENERGY

Fuel Your Fitness with Juicing

Juicing is an incredible way to flood your body with vital nutrients, support detoxification, and fuel workouts with clean, plant-based energy. Fresh, enzyme-rich juices made from organic ingredients like leafy greens and wheatgrass can help to cleanse the system and replenish essential vitamins and minerals. At Hippocrates, we emphasize the importance of incorporating juices into your daily routine to transform your health.

BIOHACKING HEALTH

Personalizing Self-Care

Biohacking continues to gain traction as individuals seek to optimize their physical and cognitive performance.

From wearable cutting-edge technology tracking biometric data to personalized nutrition plans tailored to genetic markers, biohacking empowers individuals to fine-tune their bodies and minds for peak performance.

Hippocrates is proud to offer the most progressive and effective therapies and technologies to help you heal yourself.

CHEF KEN'S RECIPE OF THE MONTH

HOLIDAY PUMPKIN PIE

Filling ingredients:

- 3 cups pumpkin, thinly sliced
- 2 cups of carrots, thinly sliced
- 1½ cups of water
- ¼ tbsp. pumpkin spice
- ½ tbsp. cinnamon
- 2 tbsp vanilla, alcohol-free
- ½ tsp. stevia
- 1 tbsp. psyllium

For the crust:

- 3 cups of pecans, soaked, rinsed and dehydrated
- 1 tbsp. cinnamon
- 1 tbsp. mesquite powder
- 1 tbsp. vanilla

Directions:

1. For the filling, add all ingredients except the psyllium in a blender and process until smooth. Add in the psyllium and blend well.
2. For the crust, blend all ingredients in a food processor until well combined.
3. Place mixture in an 8-inch pie mold pan and press down using your hands to form the crust.
4. Add the filling on top and refrigerate.

KRIS KANNEL

PHYSICAL & MENTAL EMPOWERMENT

"My experience with Hippocrates Wellness has been life-changing for me. The value is unending! Knowledge is power. The more I learn, the stronger mentally and spiritually I have become. Hippocrates structures its programs in a way that sets the students up for success. The quality and depth of the content really blew me away. The learning experience is like gold and has been made so much more valuable by human studies that have been carried out for almost 70 years. It has provided me with concrete evidence that this lifestyle works for achieving healing and optimal health. After my experience, I feel as if I am standing on solid ground. I have the confidence, backed by the golden education, that I can now use to pass on to others. My emotional, spiritual, and physical health have been greatly impacted from day one."

KRISTEN STAMPHI

BEATING OBESITY - WEIGHT LOSS

"My life nearly ended 14 years ago when I weighed more than 300 lbs. I couldn't walk naturally because my thighs rubbed together. I have always had an addictive personality. As time passed, my thin body bloomed, and every tooth eventually had to be removed because of an infection in my gums. Throughout the next three years, dentists navigated ways to place implants into my unstable jaw. I had so much anxiety I began eating and drinking everything in sight. I couldn't stop my disease. In 2019, I found Hippocrates and reluctantly checked into the fitness program. I expected judgment and ridicule but instead was met with support and guidance. I became addicted to health and lost 130 lbs. We all have habits; we seem to be in a maze or a merry-go-round. Adopting positive, healthy lifestyle habits is important to replace self-destructive ones. Be realistic every step of the way."
